

Registration to Continue For Summer Recreation

The Torrance Recreation Dept. announced today registration information for special activities to be offered this summer. Though many individuals took advantage of the special registration period last week, those who missed registering, may still sign up at the following locations and times:

Registrations for Space Age Junior Cook classes for boys, dog obedience class, Fun Thru Music programs at McMaster, Walteria, El Retiro Park and Torrance Recreation Center, and Chipewawa Pow Wow Day Camp at El Nido Park will be accepted at the Torrance Recreation Dept. office, 3031 Torrance Blvd.

Registration for Adult Golf lessons will be accepted at Sea-Aire Golf Course, 22730 Lupine Drive.

Registrations will be accepted at the first meeting for the following:

Arts and Crafts Center classes for children; modern dance classes at Victor School Playground, McMaster Park, Hickory School Playground, El Retiro Park; folk dance class at El Retiro, park lessons at six different parks, tennis lessons at South High, North High School, and West High School courts and Youth Drama Summer Stock at Torrance Park Bandshell.

Activities which have been filled to capacity are gymnastics at South High School, Tumbling at Walteria Park, space age junior cooks classes for girls, Day camps at El Retiro and Torrance Park.

College Site

Swift Action Urged It was pointed out that not only are the trustees as a group not necessarily committed to the Peninsula site, but several of them expressed dissatisfaction with the method of picking a site first, then establishing criteria for it. Among these were Anderson, financiers John E. Carr of Newport Beach and Allen J. Sutherland of San Diego, and former board chairman Louis Heilbron of San Francisco.

Torrance college site leaders feel that it is still possible to sidetrack Luckman and Dumke, but it must be by swift and united action. The report on the Peninsula site is due at the next trustees' meeting July 11-12 in Los Angeles.

CIVIL RIGHTS TOPIC WINS AT TOASTMASTERS

"Civil Rights in a Changing World," a speech delivered by Forest Beyer, was awarded the best speakers trophy at the weekly meeting of the Torrance-Lomita Realtors Toastmasters, Norman Biswanger, toastmaster of the day presided over the breakfast session.

Arthur Anderson's talk on "Duties of a Toastmaster" won the trophy for the best impromptu speech contest held by Walter Boden, Sr. These unprepared two minute talks are generally the highlight of the meeting.

Evaluator of the day award was presented to Donald Dickson. General evaluator Dan Ingram concluded with a critique of the entire meeting.

Information on the group can be obtained by calling Robert Westerfield at FR 8-8351.

Dairy Fire Here Probed For Arson

Torrance firemen quickly checked a fire this morning at Inglewood Dairy, Del Amo and Madison, and began probing for possible arson.

A trail of gas or paint thinner was poured on the ground from the barn area to a hole in the wall on the Del Amo side of the dairy. A bundle of old clothing was also spotted in the barn area, where the fire started. Firemen said there was evidence indicating the fire started outside the building, then spread to the center of the barn. It appeared to be a deliberate attempt to burn the barn, firemen said. Damage was slight.

FILMS SHOWN

City Councilman Ross Sciarrotta showed film-strips of Western Europe and discussed current events Thursday night at a program of the Torrance Adult Center, 1318 Cravens Blvd.

These monthly programs are offered especially for senior citizens of the community.

EX-BOYFRIEND USES KNIFE ON WAITRESS HERE

A Torrance waitress was recovering today from wounds inflicted on her with a penknife Wednesday by an enraged ex-boyfriend.

Lloyd P. Smith, 39, of Wilmington, was arrested by Harbor division police three hours after he was accused of slashing Eva Shaw, 39, of 1539 W. Carson, about the face and throat in front of the Torrance "L.A. Strip" restaurant where she worked.

Smith, a painter, reportedly threatened witnesses who chased him, and fled the scene. He was arrested in a parking lot. He is held on charges of assault with intent to commit murder. Smith told police "I didn't mean to kill her."

The Shaw woman was treated at Harbor General Hospital and sent home. She was described by hospital attendants as "very lucky." The knife reportedly just missed severing her jugular vein.
